Dear Cliff:

I want to thank you for your letter of October 19 concerning my visit to Argentina and the human rights situation there. I am sending an identical response to your colleagues who also signed the letter.

One of the principal reasons for my visit to Argentina will be to discuss the human rights question. We are deeply concerned with the situation there, and I will express this to President Videla and their other leaders.

As you know, a number of actions have been taken by the United States to convey to the Argentines how strongly we are committed to human rights. All arms transfer requests are being reviewed on a case-by-case basis, and we are not approving transfers of articles or services intended for police and civil law enforcement, or which could be described as such. Military training for Argentina has been withdrawn, and there will be no military sales credits for FY 1978. We have voted against an Argentine gas pipeline loan request in the Inter-American Development Bank and have informed the Argentines that other negative votes can be expected unless there is progress in the human rights area. The Argentines are fully aware that substantial improvement in our relations is dependent on their observance of basic human rights.

In raising our human rights concerns with the Argentines, we have not hesitated to call their attention to particular cases. Accordingly, we have made many direct requests to the Argentine government for information on individuals who have disappeared and been detained there. Mr. Timmerman is one such individual. President Carter spoke of our concern about Mr. Timmerman to President Videla during their bilateral conversation at the Panama Canal Treaties signing Ceremony. I intend to bring up Mr. Timerman's status with the Argentines during my visit and will let you know the results of my discussion.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

The Honorable Cyrus R. Vance
Secretary of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

In view of your visit to Argentina next month, we want to express our concerns about the human rights situation there.

As you know, there has been little significant progress in reducing human rights violations and restoring Constitutional guarantees despite the marked decrease in terrorist and subversive activities. Indeed, the Argentine Government has largely eliminated the terrorist threat, at least in comparison to what it was a year ago. Nevertheless, the disappearances and arrests continue at a steady and alarming rate.

In this regard, we wish to draw attention to the particular case of Jacob Timmerman who, until the time of his arrest, was Editor-in-Chief of the Buenos Aires daily La Opinion. Mr. Timmerman was arrested earlier this year, but, as you know, has not been brought to trial. The circumstances and reasons for Mr. Timmerman's arrest have never been explained in a satisfactory way. We are inclined to believe that Mr. Timmerman has been detained primarily because of his role as an outspoken editor, particularly on human rights matters.

We hope that when you and members of your party meet with President Videla that you will convey to him and members of the Argentine Government our deep concern about the Timmerman case and the highly unsatisfactory human rights situation as we perceive it. Moreover, we ask that you express our doubts about any meaningful improvement in our bilateral relations with Argentina in the absence of significant progress in the human rights area.
